

Quick Recap of Events

Animal Farm takes place in a farm in which a human owner is lacking care of these creatures and isn't showing any care to them whatsoever. One of the animals there was Old Major, decided to come up with the idea to try and rebel against the farmer to create a new leader and society. This new way of managing the farm was called Animalism, where everyone was treated equally and it seemed like the dream, until one Pig named Napoleon, decided to take over and has enforced Animalism in a corrupted way by making everyone work for him and having every awful action have the blame put onto Snowball.

Character Personalities

Snowball – A loyal hard worker who is always trying to serve his people in the best way possible.

Boxer – An animal who is better physically although not mentally seeing as he must consistently try and serve Napoleon instead of doing what's right.

Napoleon – A corrupt dictator who repeated the actions of Mr. Jones although in a way where it was much worse.

Mr. Jones – Another awful leader seeing as he was the one who led to the rebellion for his lack of care on the farm and for him consistently getting drunk.

Old Major – An animal on the farm who led to the idea of trying to evict Mr. Jones out of the farm after seeing his corrupt behavior and alongside with other animals wanting to establish a new form of government.
